

GRAR Rules and Regulations for Fundraising Incentives and Prizes

Fundraising Incentives:

1. The fundraising total on each team's web page at 12:00 pm on Friday June 19th, 2015 will qualify them for the following incentives:
 - i. $150 – entry fee
 - ii. $300 – canoe access
 - iii. $550 – survival weapons and tools (random selection of a race advantage card)
 - iv. $800 – map of the “arena” (route map)
 - v. $1000 – sponsorship parachute ...for when you're in a pinch
 - vi. $1500 – stolen GameMaker's map of the arena (contains all challenge stations and advantage locations)
 - vii. $2500 – You own Surviving Victor to mentor and guide you through the race (“race butler”)

NEW - For every $100 raised, one “tessera” (ballot) with your team's name on it will be removed from the Capitol's glass bowl; reducing the odds of a team being randomly selected during the allocation of “Yields”. Please see the Race Day Rules for more information.

Funds raised following the above deadline, WILL still be applied to the team total and forwarded to the appropriate charity, but will NOT qualify for further race incentives.

Race Butlers (“Victors”):

The FIRST 10 teams to achieve $2500 or more will receive a “race butler”.

1. Contest ends at 10:00 pm on Wednesday June 17, 2015. No butlers will be allocated following this deadline.
2. Race Butlers will be randomly assigned to teams by the Race Crew.
3. Race Butlers are NOT permitted to complete any challenges (all or in part) throughout the race. For the canoe portion of the race, Race Butlers may be transported by volunteer drivers from the launch area to the disembarking area to reconnect with their assigned team (To be determined by the Race Crew).

Grand Prizes:
